

When can I register for classes?

Spring 2024 Registration by Classification

All students are encouraged to meet with their academic advisor before registration. Students can identify their academic advisor by their major at <https://dacc.nmsu.edu/student-services/advising/who-is-my-advisor.html>. The Spring 2024 class schedule is currently available through my.nmsu.edu.

Thursday, November 9 - Crimson Scholars (Seniors and Juniors), Students with Disabilities, Veteran Students, NMSU Global Campus

Friday, November 10 - Crimson Scholars (Sophomores and Freshmen)

Monday, November 13 - Seniors (90+ credits completed), Graduate Students

Tuesday, November 14 - Juniors (60-89 credits completed)

Wednesday, November 15 - Sophomores (28-59 credits completed)

Thursday, November 16 - Continuing Freshmen (0-27 credits completed)

Friday, November 17 - Non-Degree Students, Readmitted Students (last attended prior to Spring 2023)

Friday, December 1 - New Freshmen, New Transfer Students, New Graduate Students, New International Graduate Students

Wednesday, January 17 - Senior Citizens (See “Senior Citizen Tuition Rate Petition” under the Forms tab on the NMSU Student Records Office website: <https://records.nmsu.edu/index.html>)

New Freshmen will register for classes with their academic advisor after they have attended a First Year Student Orientation. Contact the Academic Advising Center for details, Doña Ana Student Resources Building, Room 103, (575) 528-7272.