How do I schedule a meeting with my academic advisor?

Log into nmsu.campus.eab.com to schedule an appointment online or call the DACC Academic Advising Center at (575) 528-7272 to find out who your academic advisor is and then use this directory to contact your advisor to set up a meeting.

New students need to schedule a meeting with the appropriate academic advisor after attending New Student Orientation.

Transfer and Readmitted students need to make an appointment to meet with the appropriate academic advisor in this directory.

Continuing students need to meet with the appropriate academic advisor prior to registration beginning each April for Summer and Fall classes and each November for Spring classes.

Student Responsibility

Academic planning is a shared responsibility between the student and the academic advisor. Academic advisors provide professional direction, make suggestions, and offer advice according to current information and program requirements. Students are responsible to make choices based on this information and are always encouraged to confer with their academic advisor if they have questions.
