

Appeal for Financial Aid

Students are encouraged to appeal for federal or state aid if they experienced an extenuating circumstance (verified with documentation) that affected their ability to meet requirements for their Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) or scholarship renewal requirements.

Appeal Process:

You can submit your appeal to your Financial Aid Advisor, using your Campus' Financial Aid Office email, or in-office. After submission, your appeal will be reviewed and considered within 10-14 business days. Please be advised, submitting this appeal does not guarantee that your financial aid will be reinstated.
